

Travel with Bluewater Michigan Chapter, NRHS as we explore our railroad heritage along the banks of the Detroit and Rouge Rivers

Rails by Water Boat Tour Saturday July 17, 2010

Adult Tickets $44.00 .....Children (12 and under) $39.00

We will depart the dock at the Portofino restaurant in downtown Wyandotte at 9:00 am aboard the MV Friendship. The "Friendship" is a 78-ton passenger boat purchased in 1994 by the Portofino restaurant. This former Bob-Lo boat is equipped with a built in wet bar, bathrooms, and light effects. The dual deck layout allows guests to enjoy the light breezes on the open top level, or sit in comfort in the enclosed bottom level.

We will travel up the Detroit River to the Rouge River with a stop by the historic Bob-Lo boats Columbia and Ste Claire to take pictures and look at the ongoing restoration. We will not be able to board but our view from the water will be excellent.

We then continue to the Rouge River where we will go up to the turn around basin near the Ford Rouge Complex, viewing the railroad and other facilities along the banks.

We return to the Detroit River and head towards downtown Detroit passing the former Bob-Lo docks. As we near the Ambassador Bridge the mail boat JW Westcott pulls along side to deliver our pizza lunch. It's interesting to watch as the boat pulls up along side our boat to make the delivery. We will then turn and head back downriver returning to the Wyandotte dock at 1:00.

Your ticket includes the boat ride, pizza lunch and a soft drink per person. Additional drinks and snacks will be available for purchase at the bar on the boat.
